

Both statutory and constitutional law require that New York State provide a lawyer to individuals financially unable to obtain an attorney. Learn more here. family law office